CALIFORNIA STATE AMATEUR MMA RANKINGS

RANKINGS AS OF June 30, 2012

POWERED BY: FIGHT MATRIX

The California state amateur MMA rankings ("Rankings") are provided by an independent third party company: Fight Matrix (www.fightmatrix.com). CAMO has no control over the rankings and simply publishes the rankings it receives from Fight Matrix. The Rankings are computer generated by a proprietary algorithm which does not have any human involvement. Although CAMO welcomes comments and suggestions, independent third party rankings are not subject to appeals. The monthly rankings consider only fighters who are currently licensed and registered ("Active") with the California Amateur Mixed Martial Arts Organization, Inc. ("CAMO"). Any fighter whose license is expired or otherwise inactive will not be considered for the monthly Rankings.

ABOUT RANKINGS

Wins: wins, especially against quality opponents, strongly influence the rankings.

Strength of Schedule: bouts against more difficult opponents are weighted more than bouts against less difficult opponents.

Finishes: finishing a fight (TKO, KO, Submission, etc.) before time elapses will be receive more weight than a fight that goes to the scorecards.

Weight Class: the weight class where you are ranked is according to the weight class of your last fight. Changing weight classes will affect your ranking in the respective weight class.

Title Fights: the California State Championship title is given more weight than any other individual bout.

Leave of Absence: fighters that do not compete for more than a year will negatively influence their ranking upon re-activation.

CAMO ANNOUNCES 3x3 ROUNDS

On February 6, 2012 the California State Athletic Commission unanimously approved CAMOs request to allow three minute rounds for fighters who have more than four verified MMA fights.

Fighters with more experience will be allowed to compete for longer periods of time in order to prepare themselves for professional competition which allows five minute rounds of competition. Longer rounds are anticipated to allow fighters more confidence to develop submission grappling skills which often require more time and are paramount to a fighter's long term success as a mixed martial artist.

Starting July 1, 2012, all fighters with four or more officially documented fights will be automatically scheduled for three rounds of three minute duration (3x3) provided that both competitors qualify for the advancement. In the event that one of the two fighters scheduled for a bout does not have four rounds of official experience, the bout will be scheduled for three rounds of two minute duration (3x2). Fighters that qualify for 3x3 rounds prior to July 1 may fight three minute rounds if they so elect.

Finally, if both fighters scheduled for a bout each have more than four official fights, and otherwise qualify for the advancement to rounds of three minute duration, they may elect to use rounds of two minute provided that both contestants agree and notify CAMO.
